

Mitchell to Bare Statistics on Steel Strike

BALLOT, BALLOT.—WHO'S got the ballot, could be the title for this impromptu tableau staged at last night's Cabazon City Council meeting. It all happened when former Mayor Ian Smith, left, was unable to open a canister containing absentee ballots. Even a borrowed blackjack, liberally applied to the can by the mayor, failed to turn the trick. The situation, however, was resolved when Bob Blanton stepped from the audience to open the recalcitrant canister with a quick twist of the wrist. (Desert Sun Photo)

TALLENT 'SPOILS' CABAZON RECALL

By AL LE ANCE
CABAZON — Still defying the laws of gravity, L. D. Tallent held tenaciously to his City Council seat today — firmly buckled in by a new Superior Court order that temporarily annulled the results of last week's recall election. But three of Tallent's less successful council mates swiftly tumbled from grace last night as the voting segment of the city's 500-odd citizens ushered in three new replacements.

THE CITY'S NEW revolving door policy also caught up with temporary Police Chief Glen O. Buckland, who surrendered a still-shiny badge inherited from Robert Morton to another "temporary" chief, reserve policeman J. T. "Lucky" Walling.

Grim Rescuers Dig for Quake Dead; Death List Revised to Nine by Error

Fourth Body Sought After Flash Flood

Three Bodies Found In Wake of Deluge Near Needles, Calif.

NEEDLES, Calif. — (UPI) — Rescuers searched today for the feared fourth victim of a flash flood which tossed autos off the highway like toys and stranded some 500 motorists for 12 hours.

Three bodies already have been found and the fourth is feared buried under several feet of sand carried by the churning 15-foot crests of water which roared down desert washes following a cloudburst.

THE FOUR MEN were part of a railroad crew of six workers whose truck was swept away by the flood as they drove to repair torn up track. The two other men escaped by clinging to a bridge.

Eight other persons also reported their cars were swept off U.S. Highway 66 and 93 by the flood, but all escaped injury. The two highways were impassable for up to 12 hours after the flash flood struck late Monday and early Tuesday.

THIS ARIZONA - California border community was nearly isolated for awhile with sections of the highways and railroads in adjacent areas washed out.

Rail travel was rerouted round the area and was running up to 14 hours behind schedule.

IDENTITY OF THE man sought and believed dead was Fred Atne. The three victims recovered were Ven Elthe, Francis Yazzi and Charles Sanchez.

Sanchez' body had been swept 12 miles by the torrent. The only parts of his clothing remaining on his body when he was found were his shoes and socks.

WEATHER

Desert Area Forecast: Generally clear today through Thursday but partly cloudy at times near eastern border. Slightly cooler southern portion today.

VILLAGER ESCAPES INJURY BUT AUTO SHEARS OFF POLE

Hambart Jimenez, 18, Palm Springs, was uninjured last night when he reportedly went to sleep and drove his car off the road on Highway 111 in front of Desert Braemar.

Jimenez, who was asleep behind the steering wheel of his car when California Highway Patrol officers reached the scene of the crash, had sheered off a utility pole and had dropped a 34,000 volt power line across the road.

Special emergency crew of the California Electric Power Company were rushed to the scene to clear the roadway.

Jimenez was cited by the CHP for driving without due caution and driving on the wrong side of the road.

Senate-House In Compromise Labor Bill Talks

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Fourteen lawmakers on a Senate-House conference committee took up non-controversial issues today in a first step toward working out compromise labor reform legislation.

The conferees, representing differing shades of political philosophy, hope to come up with a bill acceptable to both Congress and President Eisenhower.

THEY MADE AN auspicious start late Tuesday by agreeing quickly on a "bill of rights" provision for rank-and-file union members. They also were in accord on reporting requirements for labor unions.

There was little difference in these provisions, however, in the reform bills originally passed by the Senate and House. The true test will come when the conferees tackle the big issues.

ALSO IN WASHINGTON, the Senate Rackets Committee threw open to the public today its previously secret investigation of the United Auto Workers Union.

Chairman John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) promised to release at the session a transcript of the testimony of witnesses heard behind closed doors.

NEW SAFETY MEASURES for the accident-ridden end of the divided Highway 111 segment north of the city gates are cheerfully inspected by directors of the Palm Springs Safety Council.

Inspecting new signs and striping are, left to right, Bob Hill, Council President, Don Miller, Dr. George Milkie and Don Wexler. A series of warning signs now caution motorists that the highway which claimed four lives this year narrows to a one-lane roadway. New striping emphasizes the warning by funneling autos into the right-hand lane before they approach the end of the divided section. The new safety measures were installed by the State Highway Department in response to a Safety Council request based on the heavy accident rate at the critical juncture.

MITCHELL TO TELL STEEL STRIKE DATA

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell makes public tonight statistics he hopes will speed up settlement of the 35-day-old steel strike.

It will be the closest an administration official has come to becoming involved in the strike, but Mitchell said his report was "not intended as intervention."

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER Tuesday ordered Mitchell to make public the statistics on wages, prices, productivity and profits to

'No Laos Bases,' U.S. Tells Soviet

WASHINGTON (UPI) — American officials today branded as "absurd" a Soviet Foreign Office charge that the United States has violated the neutrality of tiny Laos in Southeast Asia by setting clearly facts that have been released by both parties.

The data will be given newsmen this afternoon for release tonight.

IN NEW YORK, Chief Federal Mediator Joseph F. Finnegan said the outlook for settling the strike was "distinctly gloomy."

Finnegan scheduled a meeting this morning with United Steelworkers President David J. McDonald, who walked out on the talks 12 days ago because of lack of progress, and a meeting with chief industry negotiator R. Conrad Cooper in the afternoon.

San Jacinto Man Said 'Recovering'

GLOBE, Ariz. — (UPI) — Eugene Candelaria, 48, San Jacinto, Calif., was reported "improving rapidly" today from injuries suffered in an auto accident that took the life of his wife, Dorothy.

Attendants at Gila General Hospital said Candelaria suffered a crushed chest and collapsed Monday in the accident.

The mishap occurred near here on U.S. Highway 66 when Candelaria's car collided head-on with a vehicle driven by Homer Sheffield, 66, Mammoth, Ariz.

First reports said 29 persons on board were killed.

An exclusive story of lucky, redheaded Red Schoendienst, second baseman for the National League champion Milwaukee Braves, appears today in The Desert Sun.

Schoendienst — benched by an attack of tuberculosis — is getting better and today he's practicing batting and eager to get back in the game.

Idyllwild Blast Kills Father of Village Officer

Idyllwild — A dynamite blast triggered in a road clearance project yesterday claimed the life of 65-year-old Ben Vogelaar, father of Palm Springs police investigator Carroll Vogelaar and longtime Idyllwild resident.

Vogelaar had been collecting firewood for his Pine Cove cabin when he apparently stepped on a cache of 16 dynamite sticks just as the explosives were detonated by a workman, according to Palm Springs Detective Lt. Dale Thompson.

THOMPSON ACCOMPANIED Vogelaar's son to the blast scene last night.

The detective said the elderly man was apparently obscured from the view of workman Robert Fizzell, who triggered the blast from behind a clump of trees some 300 yards distant from the dynamite.

Two other workmen, who had been breaking ground for a road leading to a new Pine Cove subdivision, were off halting traffic at the Banning-Idyllwild highway.

VOGELAAR, WHO died about 45 minutes after the blast, was found some 20 feet from the spot where the dynamite was buried.

He was apparently standing right on the spot when Fizzell pushed the detonator, Thompson said.

A coroner's inquest will be held tomorrow at Tucker's Mortuary in Hemet.

'Mixed Emotions'

Where's Indian Land-Lease Bill?

The population of the Agua Caliente Indian tribe of Palm Springs today greeted with mixed emotions the announcement that tribal equalization had been approved by the U.S. House of Representatives.

The question foremost with most of the 96 Agua Calientes was: "What happened to the 96-year leasing provision attached to the equalization measure?"

IN WASHINGTON, today, Rep. D. S. Saund declared that the lease provision — which hikes to 99 years the maximum terms of Indian land leases — had been "held up temporarily" in the House.

Police Count Wrong; More Bodies Sought

Injury List Grows To 60 in 'Worst' Montana Disaster

BULLETIN

HELENA, Mont. (UPI) — Montana Civil Defense chief Hugh Potter announced today that the body of a small boy had been found in Madison River Canyon. This raised the known death toll in the earthquake to 10.

WEST YELLOWSTONE, Mont. (UPI) — A small, grim army of rescue workers intensified a search at dawn today for more possible survivors—or victims—of one of the most powerful earthquakes ever recorded in the United States.

Latest reports listed from 9 to 11 persons dead and approximately 60 injured.

EARLIER, MONTANA and Idaho authorities had reported 17 to 18 dead but the Idaho State Police said today that reports of eight dead in the Reynolds Pass area of Idaho had proved incorrect.

Marines, Forest Service personnel, sheriff's deputies and volunteers took advantage of daylight to dig through mammoth earth slides near Yellowstone National Park.

THE MAIN SEARCH was concentrated in Madison River Valley, seven miles below damaged Hebgen Dam, where the side of an 8,000-foot high mountain collapsed on a campsite with a terrifying roar.

"We feel we will find more bodies in this area," said Stuart W. Wall, Forest Service information officer. "They may have been washed down from the camp grounds below the dam."

LT. GOV. PAUL Cannon of Montana, who completed a 10-hour tour of the quake area early today, said there was still a threat of serious flooding in Madison Valley.

Cannon said Hebgen Lake was higher than he had ever seen it, but engineers assured him the dam would hold, unless there are more major shocks.

Cannon said minor tremors still were hitting the area every half hour or so, but he emphasized that they were minor.

CANNON DESCRIBED the disaster as "probably the worst in the history of the state—and particularly in view of the great loss in life."

Mayor Charles Bower of Ennis, Mont., estimated that 50 to 75 persons might have been killed by the violent series of tremors which began shortly before midnight Monday and continued all day Tuesday.

NO LONGER CONFUSED is the Palm Springs City Council which has determined that the House approval of the equalization measure will enable them to proceed with negotiations for purchase of the Palm Springs Airport site.

The council had been concerned

CHANGING THE FACE of the new Palm Springs Spa bathhouse building, workmen cement a stone veneer to the bathhouse wall in the first stage of work on an exterior decor, according to Architect Rick Harrison. The workmen are employees of John Gallarini Masonry Contractors, Inc., which is handling all masonry and block work for the Hight Construction Co., Spa builders. Harrison described the new bathhouse facade as a "Mexican chink" pattern, involving the use of local native stone cemented to the outer block wall. Hight Construction Supt. Ed Benning said the first work on exterior decor is indicative of the rapid progress on Spa construction, scheduled for completion this fall. (Desert Sun Photo)

Raul Castro In 'Hands Off' Blast at OAS

Organization Falters As Fidel's Brother Issues Warning

SANTIAGO, Chile (UPI) — A "hands off" warning by Raul Castro to the Organization of American States threatened today to cripple the new Inter-American Peace Commission before it even starts to work.

The OAS foreign ministers conference was over only a few hours and the 21 ministers were in high spirits at their "Declaration of Santiago" when the Cuban military chief flew into this Chilean capital Tuesday night.

HE INDICATED Cuba would refuse to admit the peace commission to investigate charges that Cuba had aided invaders of other Caribbean nations.

"The only police allowed in Cuba are the Cuban police," the port-tailed young major told newsmen. "Cuba will resolve its own problems without the OAS."

EARLIER IN THE DAY, Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Rao had told the conference Cuba would cooperate in efforts to determine who was involved in a 30-man invasion of Haiti.

Castro, brother of Cuban Premier Fidel Castro, mixed his attack on the peace commission with unexpected praise for the overall results of the OAS meeting.

BOTH HE AND Fidel had denounced the meeting last weekend and earlier this week but Raul said "it seems something positive has been accomplished at the meeting."

"For the first time the conference discussed the evils of dictatorship, economic development and freedom of the press," he said.

Appeal Halted On Palm Desert Car Repair Shop

Jerold L. Segall of Palm Springs this week withdrew his appeal of the planning commission's denial of a zoning variance which would have allowed him to establish and operate an automobile accessory and repair shop at Palm Desert.

Site of the proposed shop was across the street from the Desert Magazine building on Highway 111 between Cabrillo Avenue and De Anza Way.

Thomas T. Anderson of Carroll & Anderson, Indio attorneys, declared, "After consultation with my client we have decided not to pursue this variance any further."

Following its usual procedure in cases of withdrawal the board of supervisors denied the appeal of the planning commission's variance refusal.

Village Plea On Dump Site Gets Referral

City's Request for Relocation of Site Will Receive Study

A request from the City of Palm Springs that the county drop condemnation proceedings for acquisition of an 80-acre site on the north side of Ramon Road along the Southern Pacific railroad tracks near 1000 Palms and instead acquire an 80-acre site south of Ramon Road and a mile or so further west was referred by the board of supervisors this week to administrative officer.

The condemnation action is being contested, said the city fathers and the alternate site can be acquired at a very nominal price.

The supervisors received Monday and referred to the road and planning departments an objection by Charles C. Moor of the CM Ranch at Thousand Palms, to establishment of a dump "in or near Thousand Palms" and a proposed rock and gravel pit and asphalt plant in the Thousand Palms area.

"I believe the planning commission could further study and find a place for a dump and for a gravel pit that would not work a hardship on any community," said Mr. Moor.

Idyllwild Youth Conservation Meeting Slated

PALM SPRINGS — Mrs. Ann Lay of Palm Springs and Idyllwild and president of the Idyllwild Institute - Fiesta Club has announced that the week of Aug. 24 will be devoted to "Youth Conservation" at their lodge during the Sixth Annual Idyllwild Institute-Fiesta.

Scheduled for the week are well-informed speakers from communities throughout the country who will discuss the problems of teenagers and how they may be assisted in solving their problems through the efforts of members of the various women's organizations associated with the Idyllwild Institute-Fiesta Club.

BEATNIK AUTHOR RIDICULES 'BEATNIK BEAUTY CONTEST'

VENICE, Calif. (UPI) — Are Beatniks beauty contest conscious?

That question today threatened to divide this seaside city's artist colony into two opposing camps.

Lawrence Lipton, author of "The Holy Barbarians" and spokesman for the Beatnik colony here Friday attacked the Venice Arts Co. for exploiting his name and other Beatnik names in connection with a Beatnik beauty contest the firm planned to sponsor.

"They are merely hip squares who taking advantage of the Beatnik movement," said Lipton.

"True Beatniks are interested only in writing poetry, listening to jazz and making love."

The Venice Arts Co., headed by New York Actor John Gifford and Artist Tony Landreau, planned on holding a Miss Beatnik beauty contest and opening an art school.

In a release announcing both activities, the firm mentioned the names of Lipton, Eric Ford and attorney Al Mathews, owner of The Gas House, a Mecca for Beatniks.

"All Lipton wants is to have his picture on the cover of Life magazine," said Gifford in reply to Lipton's attack.

TAKING OATH OF OFFICE administered by City Clerk Patricia Adams, new Cabazon City Council members Elmer Bane, Joseph J. Delaito and Arthur A. Dukelow, reading left to right, pledge to uphold the laws of city and state and the Constitution before taking council seats vacated by a recall election. Mrs. Ritter Loses Bid on Property For Play School

City Attorney Jerry Bunker reported to the City Council today that A. A. Shapero had been awarded the high bid on the property at 250 South Patencio by the Superior Court in Indio.

This property was the subject of heavy discussion and controversy at the time Mrs. Edith Ritter announced she was turning the building into a children's play school.

The bid was awarded by the court—and according to Bunker—finished the action so far as the city is concerned. Mrs. Ritter's bid on the property was not considered by the court.

A conditional use permit for the school was approved by the such controversial testimony at the time it came before the council that the council continued it until their meeting of Sept. 8.

peered through classroom windows shared by Banning police officers. The Banning officers were present "unofficially" but Brown said his presence was requested by "a member of the Cabazon police force." The only member of the force at the time was Buckland, operator of a Desert Hot Springs merchant's patrol.

THE MEETING opened with a canvass of recall votes and counting of 10 absentee ballots.

But the absentee count stalled as Mayor Smith wrestled with a large tubular can holding the votes. "Does anybody know how to open this thing?" Smith appealed, as he battered the reluctant canister with a blackjack borrowed from a uniformed Cabazon police reservist.

FINALLY OPENED by a member of the audience, the can yielded up enough "yes" votes to seal the fate of Councilman White, whose post hinged on three ballots. One vote, that of Tallent's brother, Joe Tallent, was challenged by Ruth Whigam, whose husband, James Whigam, would have succeeded Tallent in the normal course of events.

"How long can he (Joe Tallent) be a resident here and still live in another state," queried Mrs. Whigam, a member of the CIA-Cabazon Improvement Association (not to be confused with the cloak and dagger federal CIA).

"Indefinitely," answered Yoder, "as long as he's not a resident of the other state."

MRS. WHIGAM, lacking evidence to the contrary, withdrew her challenge. The ballots were counted and the new council members were sworn in as the absentee returns cemented their positions.

The canvass of ballots was laboriously — if significantly — penciled on a sheet of foolscap as Yoder explained: "We have no official canvass sheets because the company that supplies the ballots didn't send one."

Acting on a motion by Tallent, the council unanimously installed Hicks as "temporary chairman," until a new mayor is elected.

"I THINK WE should wait a few days and consider this thing before we elect a mayor," Tallent explained.

"I hope I'm not stuck here," Hicks remarked with a grin.

The council then called a special meeting for Friday night, presumably to elect a new mayor and decide the course of action on Tallent's writ. Next they wrestled with the chore of naming a new chief of police.

They regarded a letter from Buckland, which requested an answer to his application for the job "no later than Aug. 19," as a resignation. They accepted the "resignation" unanimously.

BUCKLAND TURNED in his badge and stepped out. Three reserve Cabazon officers, pressed into temporary active duty, immediately followed suit. The "clunk" of their badges on the wooden council table drew a spontaneous round of applause from the audience.

Two other letters of application for the job were "filed" and Buckland was offered a "vote of thanks" at Tallent's suggestion. Walling, a sign painter reportedly living in Apple Valley, was unanimously named acting chief. He accepted.

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I am being married soon. My parents are divorced. My father married the woman who broke up our home. I am having a small church wedding. I sent an invitation to my father and his new wife because he is paying for the wedding. Mother will sit with the family and my father will naturally sit with the family, too. I hope my father's new wife does not come, but if she does, where should she sit?

—AUGUST BRIDE
DEAR BRIDE: If she's smart—she'll sit at home. But if she comes, she will probably sit with your father. In order to avoid an awkward situation, talk to your father soon or have your clergyman talk to him. Your father's "new" wife would add nothing but complications to your wedding.

DEAR ABBY: Has the world gone insane? This afternoon I saw a young woman nursing her baby on a bus! I was so ashamed for the other people on the bus that I stood in front of her and made a "curtain" with my coat. She sneered at me as though I were out of my head. Are women nursing their babies in public these days, or was this one a little off?

—MORTIFIED, SHOCKED AND DISGUSTED (Take your pick)
DEAR SHOCKED: Mothers usually nurse their babies in private—or they should. But occasionally a non-conformist will come long and disregard everything and everyone except her baby and his feeding schedule. In which case—those present simply turn their attention elsewhere.

DEAR ABBY: I am so shook I don't know what to do. I've been going with this guy for about a year and we have been doing things we shouldn't. I am 18 and he is 19. To make a long story short, I thought we had to get married so we told our parents, and we have plans to be married a week from this Sunday.

I just found out that we don't have to get married. Should I tell him or be quiet about it and let things go on as planned?

I love him very much and am afraid he wouldn't marry me unless he thought he had to.

—IN A MESS

DEAR IN: Tell the boy (and your parents) there is no reason to rush the wedding. If you feel that the boy wouldn't marry you unless he thought he "had to," turn him loose. A trapped man makes a poor husband. Now, young lady, thank your lucky stars that your lesson was not as expensive as it might have been. Elevate your morals, and resolve never to get yourself into a situation like this one again.

DEAR ABBY: Maybe you will think I am crazy when you read this letter, but here goes: I have heard that if you think about a person real, real hard they will get the message and start thinking about you, too. I have tried it and when I called this certain party on the telephone, he said he was busy doing something and was surprised to hear from me. How come

—ERNA
DEAR ERNA: You are referring to something very few people know anything about. (Extraneous perception and mental telepathy.) Don't waste your time concentrating on someone in the hope that he will "get the message." Write a letter instead.

To get ABBY's booklet, "What Every Teenager Wants to Know," send 25 cents and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY in care of this newspaper.

State of California, dated the 23rd day of July, A.D. 1959, in the above entitled action, (and directed to the Sheriff of the County of Riverside, State of California,) wherein Hubert H. Kronen and Louise D. Kronen, the above named plaintiffs, obtained a judgment in the Superior Court of the County of Riverside, State of California, against Yoland D. Markson, aka Y. D. Markson, the named defendant, on the 25th day of May, 1959, for the sum of six thousand five hundred seventy-five and 88/100 dollars, and costs, I have this day attached and levied upon all the right, title and interest and estate of the named defendant Yoland D. Markson, aka Y. D. Markson, of, in and to the following described real property, situate, lying and being in the County of Riverside, State of California, and more particularly described as follows, to-wit:

Lot 100 of Winder Estates, as shown by map on file in Book 24, Pages 94 and 95 of Maps, Riverside County, California.
Public Notice is hereby given that I will, on Thursday the 2nd day of September A.D. 1959, at 11:00 o'clock A.M., of that day, in front of the Sheriff's office on Orange Street in the City of Riverside, sell at public auction, for lawful money of the United States, all the right, title, claim and interest of said defendant Yoland D. Markson aka Y. D. Markson, of, in and to the above described property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to raise sufficient to satisfy said judgment, with interest and costs, etc., to the highest and best bidder.

Dated this 5th day of August, 1959.

QUAKE'S 'HORROR' TOLD BY SURVIVORS

WEST YELLOWSTONE, Mont. (UPI) — Lloyd Verlanic, Anaconda, Mont., was the first to reach Mrs. Purley Bennett, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho, whose husband and three children were buried in a slide caused by an earthquake. A fourth child survived.

Verlanic found Mrs. Bennett and her son, Phil, 16, in the middle of a dry creek bed.

"MRS. BENNETT was nude," Verlanic said. "She was crawling on her hands and knees. She looked up at me, her face a mass of blood and said, 'Oh, thank God. I've been crawling and praying all night. My children, oh my God, my children. I wish I could find my children.'"

Verlanic said that when the mountain crashed down into the canyon, water from the Madison River sent air swooshing up on both banks with such force it tore the clothes off campers.

MR. AND MRS. S. B. Gilstand, Helena, Mont., were parked about a half mile downstream from the landslide and were among the first to reach the injured.

"The roar sounded like the end of the world," Gilstand said. "We were sleeping in the car. It felt as if 10 men were jumping on your bumper."

Air Force Warrant Officer Victor James, 55, El Centro, Calif., was parked in his trailer about 75 yards from where the main slide hit.

"I heard a terrible rumble and looked up," he said. "I saw the whole damn mountain crumbling. It was awful. I saw a lot of fighting during World War II but I never heard such a hell of a roar."

UPI CORRESPONDENT Robert Cremen narrowly missed injury in one of the aftershocks at 8:26 a.m. p.d. It happened near where he and Highway Patrolman Robert Spear, rancher Don Cox, and Sheriff Lloyd Thomas of Beaverhead County were standing.

They had just driven to the downstream side of the rockslide. At that point rocks were still trickling down the mountainside and two cars could be seen "twisted like a wrung washrag," Cremen said.

"I was just taking a picture when Spear shouted 'Good God, look at that!' There were five or six huge boulders coming down from the top of the mountain."

"WE WERE BACK about 50 feet from the slide and the car was pointed toward the slide. We all turned in," Spear got the car turned around just as the rocks came crashing down behind us.

"Seconds later a big ledge broke off the cliff and came tumbling down. One rock made a 10-foot dent in the asphalt highway."

In West Yellowstone, western gateway to Yellowstone, Laura Schauer, Los Angeles, was coming out of the Wagon Wheel Cafe when the first quake struck.

"I FELT LIKE I was on waves," she said. "I had no control. The lights swung. Glass was flying everywhere. I picked myself up off the ground several feet from the steps."

She suffered a lacerated left leg.

Becky Alexander, Everett, Wash., was driving out of the park with her children, Leslie and Larry, along with Glen and Thelma Alexander.

"We thought it was a flat tire and stopped," Becky said. "The boulders came rushing down both in front and in back of the car. One felled two trees in front of the car."

Caltech Prof Predicted Site Of Earthquake

PASADENA (UPI) — Dr. Charles F. Richter, head of the California Institute of Technology seismology lab, in a recent report picked the Montana - Idaho area as "one of the areas" where damaging earthquakes were most likely to occur.

Richter declined to state what brought about today's disastrous series of Montana quakes, other than to say that the area is in the "active belt general for quakes."

IN HIS REPORT, released last Dec. 7, Richter noted that California produced 80 to 90 per cent of the earthquakes in the United States, but had no corner on "high risk areas."

High risk areas, as evaluated by Richter, are located in California, a narrow north-south belt extending through parts of Idaho, Montana, the Central Mississippi Valley and parts of northern New York state and New England.

THOUSAND PALMS

New residents in Thousand Palms are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Fitch and son, Wayne, Jr., who recently moved into their new home on the corner of Ramon Road and Desert Haven Drive. They purchased this home from Richard Palmer. For the past year they have resided on the Joe Klein Ranch near Thousand Palms. Valley residents for over two years, they had previously made their home in Cathedral City.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald V. Marker and young daughter, Miki Lynn, have moved to India to make their home after having resided in Thousand Palms for the past year. They first lived in the Eugene D. Mitchell home on Calle Jessica, and in the William Biebs home on Arbor Real for the past several months coming to the desert area from Sacramento. Marker is with the California Highway Patrol, stationed at the India office.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Dovey and young daughter, Laurie, are now residing in Banning after having made Thousand Palms their home since their marriage two years ago this summer. Laurie is one of Thousand Palms' "Native Daughters." Most recently they occupied the Virgil L. McCormick house on the corner of Calle Helene and Dell Road, and prior to that resided in the house on Calle Jessica owned by Miss Dorothy Hawkes. Mr. Dovey is an electrician.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Wilmoth left on last Thursday, the 13th, for an extended vacation to many points of interest. The Wilmoths are the former lessee-operators of the Thousand Palms Texaco Service station.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Lennie are spending a "rest" vacation at Idyllwild. Mr. Lennie, of course, is getting in some of his favorite relaxation sport — fishing. Mrs. Lennie is Thousand Palms' Postmaster; Lennie is connected with the Welcome Real Estate office.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Welcome returned recently from a few days spent in Vista, where they were called by the accidental illness of Welcome's sister, Mrs. Mary Simpson of Vista. Mrs. Simpson suffered a fall while working in

HENWOOD'S FIFTH OFFSPRING PUTS IN AN APPEARANCE

A baby son was born this weekend to Robert and Hallie Henwood, 1445 Opuntia Road, at Desert Hospital.

To be known to the world as Ronald B. Henwood, the baby weighed 6 pounds, 13 ounces and was 19 inches long. He is the third son of the Henwoods and the family's fifth child. His brothers and sisters are Robert, Richard, Sandra Leigh and Roberta Sue.

Henwood, who is Desert Hospital administrator, said that the baby was born at 2:15 Sunday afternoon, and reported that both the mother and baby were doing fine. Both the paternal and maternal grandparents live in Illinois.

Turn Indicator Abuse Irks CHP; Warning Issued

SACRAMENTO — Truck drivers who leave their turn signals flashing while parked at restaurants or along the roadway are not only violating the law but are creating a potential traffic hazard, Bradford M. Caltenden, Commissioner of the California Highway Patrol, said today.

"The Highway Patrol, together with operators of other emergency vehicles, uses its flashing amber and red lights to indicate a situation requiring extra caution by the motorist," Caltenden pointed out.

"THE VALUE OF these warnings will soon be lost if motorists get the idea that they merely indicate that a truck has stopped for a cup of coffee or something to eat."

The highway patrol official noted that the law authorizes truckers whose vehicles are disabled along the roadway to use the flashing turn light on both sides of their trucks until such time as they can place flares along the roadway. Otherwise the use of turning lights is legal only to indicate that the vehicle is turning or changing lanes.

"THE USE OF CLEARANCE lights and parking lights, which is required by the vehicle code, adequately safeguards the truck when it is parked away from the roadway."

"If it is necessary because of a disability to park the truck on or within 10 feet of the roadway, warning flares must be used," Caltenden declared.

Indian Avenue Paving Slated

Director of Public Works Phil Abrams told Palm Springs City Council Monday that plans have been completed to complete the paving of Indian Avenue to Vista China along with the job of putting Vista China construction through from Indian to Sunrise Way.

The council later this month will officially accept grants of right-of-way from the two remaining properties on the Indian Avenue extension.

Protocol Puzzle

Khrushchev Visit Poses Questions

Following dispatch is by the United Press International reporter who accompanied Vice President Nixon on his tour of the Soviet Union and Poland. Nixon flew part way back from Poland on the press plane.

By ERNEST BARCELLA
United Press International
WASHINGTON — UPI — What is the most effective way of dealing with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev?
How is his health?

WHAT, IF ANYTHING, will his September visit to the United States accomplish?

What manner of man is the Soviet boss?

How is the Communist "hate America" campaign faring?

Why didn't Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Stefan Cardinal Wyszyński of Poland get together while Nixon was in Warsaw?

THESE AND SIMILAR questions are the fore now that Nixon has returned from his historic journey to the Soviet Union and Poland, and President Eisenhower will play host to Khrushchev next month before going to Russia himself.

Nixon presumably brought back with him some up-to-date tips for the President on how to deal

THE VICE PRESIDENT, who picked up valuable experience on that count in his now-famous "kitchen meeting" with Khrushchev, was not disclosing any strategy.

However, the consensus is that, as far as the Russian leaders are concerned, American leaders must get across to them the fact that the United States is strong and Indio hospital operator Dr. Gene Morris faces Federal court trial in Los Angeles Nov. 16 on four counts of income tax evasion.

Morris, owner and operator of Casita Hospital, pleaded innocent to indictments charging him with failure to pay $67,052 in taxes in the four-year period from 1953 through 1956.

He will be tried before Judge Harry C. Westover in the U. S. District Court at Los Angeles Nov. 16.

Morris, who previously claimed that any error in his reported income tax was a bookkeeping oversight, paid $15,135 in taxes for the four years instead of the $82,168 the Internal Revenue Bureau claims he owes.

Legal Affair

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (UPI) — Atty. Serafino Ginetti was counsel for the New Haven Annex in its fight to remain a separate taxing district of the city, but the legislature adopted a bill allowing the city to absorb the Annex.

Ginetti sent a bill for $3,000 to the New Haven Board of Finance, his fee for representing the Annex in the losing fight. He claimed that because the city absorbed all the obligations of the Annex, that included his bill, too.

Newspapers are keeping modern. In 1957, $136,000,000 was invested by daily newspapers to improve plants, equipment and product. These same newspapers, it is estimated, spent an additional $75,000,000 for improvement in 1958.

that is has he will to use that strength.

ONE SCHOOL OF thought is that the sweetness - and - light - and - sugar approach does not help in dealing with the Russians. This group feels that while tough talk should be answered with talk just as tough, sometimes the situation calls for finessing a point. For example, this view is that American officials should finesse Khrushchev off whenever he flexes his "missiles."

That view can be stated as follows:

THERE IS NO point in arguing about detail if Khrushchev says he can destroy London with four missiles and New York with six. The best answer is to smile and say "Fine, we are not going to argue or question that; but we are strong, too, and neither you nor we are strong enough to knock the other out. But whoever starts anything is going to get the hell kicked out of him, too. It will be suicide for the one who starts it. It will be a double knockout."

This school also holds that, as to military position, "there is nothing worse we can do than shiver and shake and say we are worried; we must not only assume that he (Khrushchev) has strength but the will to use it. If we don't go to the bargaining table with the same strength he'll kick hell out of us at the bargaining table."

OBSERVERS WHO SAW Khrushchev at close quarters publicly and some who saw him in private conversations came to the same general conclusion—he seemed full of rugged stamina, alert and in fine form. Some observers thought that he was ready to "blow his stack." At 64, Khrushchev drives himself unmercifully, and the pace sometimes shows, especially at the end of a long day.

Some of those who compare Khrushchev to Stalin, say that whereas Communism was a means of power for Stalin, it is a religion with Khrushchev. As such one view is that regardless of what he sees in the United States he will see it through Communist eyes and magnify, distort and compress what he sees to suit the purpose of his Communist training.

AMERICAN OFFICIALS realize that they are not going to change his idea of capitalism — the idea that American workers are oppressed, that there is widespread unemployment and that American workers can't buy the houses that American officials say they can. The main thing to American officials is the subtle effect that the visit could have over the long run.

MARINES ARRIVING HERE FOR BIGGEST PEACETIME 'GAMES'

TWENTYNINE PALMS — One of the largest air-ground exercises in the peacetime history of the Marine Corps Reserve gets under way here when Operation Handymen opens Aug. 24. Some 3,000 men will participate in the three-day exercise designed to test the mobilization readiness of reserve ground units and the capabilities of supporting air reserve squadrons.

The exercise caps two weeks of preparation by 11 reserve organizations undergoing summer training programs at the Twentynine Palms Marine Base from Aug. 15 through 25.

The first out-of-state reserve units are scheduled to arrive at Palm Springs Airport Saturday.

Educator Says Daily Newspaper Ideal Classroom Study Stimulator

In view of the frequent complaints of parents in all parts of the nation that many of our schools are substituting frivolities for fundamentals of education it is refreshing and encouraging to read of one public school system which has adopted a "down to earth" program with outstanding success.

Appropriately this departure from frills and return to basic principles in laying a sound educational foundation for students of today originated in the progressive State of Texas and ultra modern City of Austin.

"Discoverer" of the medium employed and founder of the system is Dr. Irby B. Carruth, superintendent of the Austin public schools, and a firm believer that school children learn more about the important things in life, are better prepared for the future and become better citizens if newspapers are made a part of their regular daily classroom work.

Let Dr. Carruth tell the story—well worth attention and consideration by every educator—in his own words:

"Newspapers are delivered to Austin's nine junior high schools daily and students read and discuss the contents between 8 and 8:30 a. m. The program was begun 18 months ago and has proved an invaluable aid to teaching.

"You couldn't find a better stimulator in the teaching of history and the same is true of civics, geography and English. Students are more interested than before in affairs of their city, state and nation and much more interested in international affairs.

"Our teachers are convinced that this program will be instrumental in making Austin children more intelligent citizens and more inclined to accept responsible citizenship.

"The teachers are convinced that careful daily reading of newspapers teaches the children to do more critical thinking. We find that they have become more interested in the editorial page and many students are writing letters to the editor.

"The newspapers can be used to vitalize any subject... teachers select articles that are germane to the studies that day. The newspaper is used for comment, discussion, for themes and for map study. Probably every article in it could be used in some class.

Should our local educators wish to test such a plan The Desert Sun will be pleased to extend its full cooperation in each classroom project.

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

In The Sun
Some news, earth-shaking,
Of people quaking.

Just before starting to ease this piece through the typewriter, the mailman brought me my copy of Friday's Desert Sun.

That's the issue that had that article by Al Le Ance speakeagled across the top, going the full distance, eight columns.

IN WHICH Mr. Le Ance set forth that Palm Springs had grown so large and had so many income tax payers, that the Internal Revenue Bureau saw fit to establish a full time office here.

It occurred to me that Al's touch was a little bit light and whimsical for such a grave subject.

But as a connoisseur of news items, I must say it had that dramatic punch—suspense. It left a lot of people wondering if they were going to be tagged.

BEFORE GETTING off the subject, let me say that the Bureau of Internal Revenue must be thinking that Palm Springs is a place of untold wealth.

And that many people think it is vulgar to enlarge upon their possessions. There ARE such things as getting too big. Now, let's forget income taxes and discuss things that are more pleasant and less disquieting.

THE YEAR is certainly moving along. Seems like only yesterday that I transferred my anatomy from my easy chair in The Sun office to my easy chair at the beach. Then last night I switched on the TV set and watched a football game.

Fall can't be far away.

WELL, I'M GLAD the football season is about to break in on us. Those of us so inclined, will be able to watch some exciting games on the video. Outside of two All-Star games, TV in the southland hasn't been the same since the Dodgers moved to Los Angeles.

Most of the National and American League teams televise their road games into their home towns.

In and around Chicago this summer, I watched the Cubs play at Wrigley Field, their home base, every game. It didn't hurt their game.

BUT HERE in Southern California we don't even see the Game of the Week on Saturdays. Games which start at around 10:30 a.m., or time. How that program could harm Dodger attendance when they play at night, several hours later, I can't see.

Personally, I think that seeing the big teams in action on TV would whet the baseball appetite of the populace and more would attend the L. A. home games, rather than fewer.

Well, the drought is about over. Football season is with us with many big games slated for TV and then there's the World Series.

They wouldn't dare black out the latter locally even if the Dodgers made it.

Here we are—at the bottom of the page again.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

Copenhagen is a little Paris. A gay, musical, stay - up - all - night town. Sidewalk cafes, beautiful women and handsome men. After the grim city of Moscow, it is a little bit of Paradise.

I got my hair cut and washed, sent out my shirts and went down to the Tivoli Gardens to check the action.

THE LOOKING action in Copenhagen is mainly smorrebrod. The eating action is mainly smorrebrod.

My hotel is a lively place. In winter it is a hostel for University students. In summer, the students run it for tourists. A small, but excellent room with a view costs me $3 a day.

For three hours a day I have hired me a pretty Danish girl to read me the Danish newspapers, magazines and translate the radio. Her name is Ninna and she is engaged to the student assistant manager. (She waits on tables, too, and speaks English, German and French.)

DO YOU KNOW how to eat smorrebrod? Fortunately, I have made a complete study of this matter and can tell you. Smorrebrod are open - face Danish sandwiches. The waiter brings you various slices of bread and little pots of shrimp, ham, mushrooms - and - bacon. Things like that.

He brings you quantities of butter. Butter is served herein slabs the size of a playing card and half an inch thick.

"Now show me how to eat the smorrebrod, Ninna."

WELL, YOU TAKE the whole slice of bread - you have two plates in front of you. You take the slice of bread and lay it on the left-hand plate. You butter this whole.

Now you transfer the bread to the right-hand plate, the one in front of you. You do not transfer it by hand. You butter it by hand but you transfer it by putting your knife UNDER the bread and pronging it with the fork on top.

And I thought: "If all the smorrebrod in Denmark were distributed, I would make a pig of myself." And that is what I did.

GRIN AND BEAR IT By LICHTY

"... And when school starts teacher will find out I didn't waste my summer!... I drove my camp counselors crazy!..."

EARL WILSON:

Yasmin Goes 'Incognito'

Rita Hayworth's 3-year-old daughter, went swimming at the exclusive Beach Point Club at Mamaroneck - but very few knew that this was the often-headlined little girl now en route to the Riviera to join her father, Aly Khan. Because her hostess, Mrs. Bernard Kamber, introduced her to everybody at the club as simply, "Yasmin Khan."

The stock market flurry naturally caused excitement on the French Riviera. Two American financiers were sunning themselves in front of the Carlton at Cannes. One said, "I think the sea is rising." The other excitedly shouted: "Sell!"

The late Eddie Duchin's son Peter makes his big-time TV debut as a pianist Aug. 30 on Ed Sullivan's Army show. He adopted his father's theme song, "Concerto in E Flat Minor" . . . Bert Wheeler plays the court jester of a scandal-ridden Presidential administration in the B'way show, "The Gang's All Here," and as he tells it at the Lambs, "I'm kind of a clown, but I wind up stealing a couple million dollars." The play has a President, Melvyn Douglas; President has a mistress, and the authors, Lee and Lawrence, are from Ohio - so maybe you can guess what President.

Anna Magnani was so "taken" with Leonard Garten, 25-year-old "Fugitive Kind" extra, she got him two screen tests . . . Candy Jones has a columnist she can call her own . . . Toots Shor, the Man Without a Saloon, finds prices so high in the other joints, he's hurrying his new spot . . . Jack ("Count Turf") Amiel and glamorous publicist Gertrude Bayne are a-goin' steady . . . You may've heard about those "wicked B'way agents and personal managers." Well, pretty Doris Weiss, herself an actress, is one - she represents jazz musician Don Elliott and does TV personally.

Marilyn Monroe calls her husband "Art." All Arthurs, I guess, get called Art, but Arthur Miller somehow seems too arty to be Art . . . Hal March lost part of a tooth cap while on stage in "Two for the Seesaw." He finished the scene, but he says he kept thinking, "I probably look like Milton Berle when he puts black on his teeth - and me playing a lover!"

London's battalions of street-walkers (actually more than 10,000) are atremble about the new Street Offenses Act, effective next week, which for the first time threatens jail to prostitutes found loitering. Until now they've only paid 40 shillings fine. Experts predict the law will drive the thousands of gals off the streets - and underground.

Ernest Hemingway made an invaluable contribution to Immortal Dialogue when he told Al Horwitz, concerning a mutual friend, "You know, he does a lot of useless drinking" . . . Understand Jackie Gleason's inaugurated a fresh idea in B'way stage rehearsals: "A Scotch break" . . . One of Errol Flynn's pals just nicknamed him "The Tall Farouk" . . . The Voisin's boss, Hy Uchitel, and his ex, Lynn Dixon, reconciled while separately vacationing in Miami Beach.

HEY, THERE, QUIZ SHOW INVESTIGATORS: One Grand Jury witness says he was advised to lie and give the show he was connected with a whitewash. He says a lawyer told him, "If you tell the truth, everybody else'll lie and you'll be convicted of perjury!"

CRIBBED CORN: "The Texas manufacturer sponsored an essay writing contest for school children. He only asked for a short piece beginning? 'I like Texas because -' limited to 25,000 words."

THE MIDNIGHT EARL . . .

The Dennis Crosby-Marilyn Scott paternity suit reportedly was settled out of court . . . Betsy Drake's asking Cary Grant for a million - in cash - as a divorce settlement . . . The late Sen. McCarthy's widow is mulling an offer to write a book about him . . . Comedian Alan Gale'll be a grandpa . . . Curvy Joyce Barker is featured on the CBS-TV soap opera, "The Secret Storm" . . . "Music Man" started 18 minutes late the other night when Equity wouldn't let the cast onstage till the management promised to clean up the dressing rooms . . . Lena Horne switched to Capitol Records; she was angry 'cause RCA Victor released her album with Belafonte despite her objections . . . Sophia Loren's asking for Harry Guardino for her first B'way show . . . Benito Mussolini's son Romano is angling for an OK to bring his jazz group here.

Singer Dinah Washington's picked her sixth husband—Horatio Maillard . . . Producer Cheryl Crawford asked singer Johnny Mathis to do the lead in her B'way show, "The Long Drive" . . . One of the top T comics is asking a fat lip; his language in public places is loud and purple . . . Boxer Art Aragon is dating the ex-Mrs. Dean Martin.

EARL'S PEARLS . . . I wouldn't be so bad if your take-home pay stayed there. —Quote.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH . . . Henny Youngman recalls the H'wood truism that you can often gauge an actor's success by the size of his agent's swimming pool.

WIS H'ID SAID THAT . . . Waler Slezak described a henpecked guy: "The only time he makes a decision is when he buzzes for an elevator."

Rob't Q. Lewis claims one of the new tonics is so strong that his grandmother took one sip and began helping boy scouts across the street . . . That's earl, brother.

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Hurok Finally Loses

HOLLYWOOD — Sol Hurok lost $30,000 on the booking of his "Russian Festival" in San Francisco and Oakland but more than made up for the Bay Area's cash - AND - cultural deficit in the Hollywood Bowl here in Los Angeles. Gross receipts at the Bowl were a whammy $480,000. Hurok's deal called for 75 percent of the take so the Bowl got $360,000 and Hurok got $360,000 - BUT out of that Hurok has to pay the salaries-plus - transportation - hotel-and-food bills of his 210 handpicked dancers, singers and musicians from such farflung USSR satellites as Kirghiz, Kazakh, the Ukraine and Armenia, besides sending another big chunk of cash back to the Kremlin for the services of his "cultural exchanges."

Don't feel sorry for Sol - his troupe still has some more U.S. cities to play, in addition to Toronto and Montreal, before the entertainers fly back to Moscow, pack their dime - store souvenirs stamped "Made in Japan" into their drozhkis, and disband for the long haul back to their communal kiosks.

THINGS ARE TOUGH all over: Frank Fenton had to trim the budget for his "Hell Raisers" script at Fox to the extent of 2,000 Chinese warriors. But Bob Wagner still remains in the star spot.

Bob Mitchum is complaining about those news stories about his barroom brawl in Dublin, claiming they didn't give out with the whole story. Bob is serious, since our Immigration Service makes him sign certain in-and-out-of-the-U.S. certificates, stemming from his own brush with the Los Angeles narcotics squad of a few years back. He wants to keep his record clean . . . Famous Last Words: "Will you join us in a chorus of 'My Wild Irish Rose,' Mr. Mitchum"

AUDREY HEPBURN had to send all the way from her chalet in Switzerland which advertises

"The World's Finest Chocolates - Swiss-Made, of Course!" - to Hollywood for her favorite candy: licorice whips. Reason being that Audrey has a weight problem and the Hollywood - concocted candy is fat-free . . . Speaking of diets, Gary Crosby has shed 26 of the pounds that had his fans calling him "Fat" - in "Holiday for Lovers" but not by dieting. Gary has WORKED the fat off in his nightclub act with his brothers . . . And speaking of the Crosbys' (cq) act, the REAL reason Bing Crosby hasn't seen it is because Gary is "boss" of the act. Water-gary says goes, Gary still hasn't said okay to inviting his dad - and Bing won't go to Las Vegas to catch his kids unless he's invited.

Dennis Hopper decided to get off the Beatnik kick that has stymied his Hollywood career. The young actor replaced his beat-up Beat trappings (sweat-shirt, bluejeans, sneakers) with a $750 Continental-cut wardrobe. The very next day he got a studio call to get measured for the Beat outfit he'll wear in his next movie, MGM's "Key Witness".

MARLON BRANDO confided to a chum that in order to be a good actor these days "you gotta be all mixed-up emotionally." I don't know how Tony Perkins feels about all this but in the next breath Brando said, "The best of the crop of new actors is Tony Perkins."

If you wondered where Julie London got that jive talk she dished out on What's My Line? -the source was her boy friend, jazzman Bobby Troup.

Did I say things were tough in the movie studios? Ditto Desilu. One of the economy experts for Desi and Lucy put a lock on the no-time-required phone that their hungry actor employees have been using for free phone calls in the studio commissary.

Cracked by a Screen Gems cameraman: "Okay, boss, so I've got a lot of faults - but being WRONG isn't one of them!"

NEW BOOK

'Oscar' Diary Details Growth Since 1928

Contract negotiations have recently been completed for the publication of Academy Award Diary 1928-1955, a moving picture encyclopedia by Henry Cauley Clark, of 4297 Greenmount, Memphis, Tennessee. Pageant Press, Inc., of New York City will publish the book, due for release early this winter. Academy Award Diary 1928-1955 is a highly illuminating collection of pertinent facts concerning the history and development of the moving picture industry's famous "Oscar." This is, because of the extensive research and careful preparation, an impressive and complete journal of award winners. Henry Cauley Clark was born in Philadelphia, Pa., and is now the director of continuity, publicity and promotion at Station WREC-TV in Memphis, Tenn. His first attempt at writing was at the age of eight ("Roses are blue, I love you"), and his reward was a smack in mouth by his beloved, also aged eight. Since then he has worked on a newspaper, written short stories and edited company magazines. He now lives in Memphis with his wife and two children.

Quotes From the News

WASHINGTON — Sen. Thomas J. Dodd (D - Conn.), urging Americans to be courteous but not enthusiastic when Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev visits the United States next month: "Let there be no cheers for the Red dictator, no crowds assembled to greet him, no flattery or flowers. Let our people be civil but silent."

Village Decorator Gains Audience With Pope John

Jock Williamson, local decorator who is currently on a buying trip through Europe, wrote from Rome that he was being taken to the summer palace of Pope John for an audience with His Holiness.

Armed with a letter from his good friend Richard Cardinal Cushing, Archbishop of Boston, Williamson was scheduled to meet Pope John Aug. 12.

Visiting Palm Springs winter residents on his trip abroad, Williamson reported that he saw Arthur Elrod in the theater lobby at the Elhel Merman show in New York, visited Mrs. Alvan Fuller at Rye Beach, N. H., and saw the John Ewalds at their summer home in Garden City.

He first landed at Naples where he met the Ray Ryans, and then Ray took off to set up his club at Mt. Kenya, East Africa.

He is continuing his trip out of France and Venice which he is getting stock for his business in Palm Springs and will sail from Genoa on Sept. 8 for New York, scheduling his return to Palm Springs for October 1.

Rockefellers Ex-Maid Fetes In-Law To-Be

SOGNE, Norway (UPI)—Mrs. Nelson Rockefeller Monday night enjoyed an American-style lobster dinner at the modest farm home of her son Steven's future Norwegian in-laws.

She represented the advance party of the Rockefeller family and friends who will attend Steven's wedding this Saturday to pretty Anne Marie Rasmussen, at one time a maid in the Rockefeller home in New York.

New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller announced that he and his daughter Anne would leave for Norway Thursday and that other members of the clan will have departed before then.

Six places were set in the Rasmussen home for Monday night's dinner. Anne Marie's parents and 19-year-old sister Torhild attended, as well as Mrs. Rockefeller and Steven.

In Norway lobster usually is served cold, but the Rasmussens served it hot — boiled with melted butter — as a special gesture to their newly arrived guest.

Mrs. Rockefeller today planned to inspect the Kristianstad Klubben where the wedding reception is to be held.

Her arrival by plane Monday was treated as a national event by the Nordic press. However, one newspaper, the Oslo Aften Posten, headlined that "whole world human happiness in the world has been shaken by reports of disaster" in the form of incomplete happiness at Sogne.

The newspaper said Torbjørn Hemme, a prospective bridegroom and long time friend of Anne Marie, was ill with a kidney ailment that could keep her from the wedding.

Mrs. McKinney Off to Visit Son

Mrs. Willard (Betty) McKinney, last week flew by jet plane to Chicago to visit with their son and daughter-in-law Mr. and Mrs. David McKinney. He is stationed at Great Lakes Naval Station. Before leaving for the east she and their younger son, Michael, spent a week in Los Angeles visiting Disneyland and attending the Philharmonic and the Hollywood Bowl.

IOWAN TO HEAD FEDERATION OF PRESS WOMEN

PORTLAND (UPI)—Mrs. Henry Vandenberg, Shell Rock, Iowa, publisher, was elected president of the National Federation of Press Women at the concluding sessions of the group's national convention here Friday.

Mrs. J. Webster Phillips, Columbia, Mo., was named vice president.

The delegates, with the Portland convention behind them, left today on a weekend tour of the Oregon Coast with stops scheduled at Astoria and Tillamook. Monday they will visit the state capital at Salem, then go to famed Timberline lodge on Mt. Hood for dinner.

Just Like Ladies Thought, They're Judged 'Best Drivers'

NEW YORK (UPI)—Two experts behind the wheel, a man and a woman, put us ladies before the men in driving ability.

Although I must confess that Carl C. Crim, the "1959 Driver of the Year," was reluctant to discuss women motorists.

"You're trying to put me on a spot," laughed Crim, when I asked him who in general was the safer driver—man or woman.

"The women is quicker, her reactions are fast," he said. "She is more alert. Not easily flustered."

Crim, who lives at Okmulgee, Okla., owns his own tank truck and leases it on jobs. He has had 25 years of accident-free driving. Covered more than a million and one-half miles, and this record—plus his life-saving efforts on and off the highways—won him the American Trucking Association's national citation.

The lady expert is Miss Patricia Jones, a 39-year-old stunt driver touring with Jack Kochman's "hell drivers."

Miss Jones, a tall blonde from Wichita, Kan., proved this year that she can drive with thrift as well as thrill by piloting a Dodge to victory in the annual economy run. She has used the same make of car in the seven years she has been a stunt driver and estimates she has logged half a million miles.

"To get to be 30 in this business, you have to be careful," she said.

"I do all the stunts the men drivers do, but maybe I'm a little bit more cautious and less aggressive behind the wheel—and the same holds for the 60 million women drivers across the nation. Statistics show they're naturally safer than men."

Many male drivers are "overconfident," she said.

She believes the courtesy factor is the prime reason for the low accident rate among women drivers.

Her advice to the woman driver is this: Don't assume that there is a lot of chivalry on the open road.

"You may think your femininity entitles you to go first. But don't risk it. Let the man driver cross ahead of you, cut in or pass," she said.

As for Crim, he believes the rules of the road apply to either sex in the same degree.

Crim said, "I give a lot of the credit for my driving record to my wife. She gets up and fixes me a good breakfast . . . and that's something, for I begin work at about four in the morning. She never starts out with an argument."

Said his wife: "At that hour, who's awake enough to argue!"

SANDPIPER'S LADY MANAGER HAVING BUSMAN HOLIDAY

PALM DESERT — Sandpiper Manager Rita Fagan is combining a two-week vacation with a busman's holiday at the Town and Country Hotel in San Diego's Mission Valley Inn.

Miss Fagan, who manages the own-a-year-own Sandpiper apartment project developed by George M. Holstein and Sons is touring other Holstein developments in the Southwest.

She has visited Loma Palisades, Costa Mesa, Malibu and Corona del Mar on her current trip.

Aschulers On Tour Behind Iron Curtain

Heading for the Iron Curtain after touring the British Isles and the European Continent, are visiting Villagers Ernie and Lee Aschuler.

Writing from Ireland, the Aschulers report that they've already covered London and Eilat and are now on their way to Copenhagen before penetrating the eastern countries.

They're planning to tour Helsinki, Leningrad and Moscow, before returning to the West via Vienna — and the opening of the opera season — Istanbul, Ierak, Athens, Rome, Zurich and Paris. The Aschuler journey will cover 2 1/2 months, ending in early fall.

smoothest ride!

One of the 7 big bests Chevrolet gives you over any other car in its field

Anyone who's ever taken a Chevy over a choppy country road can tell you how lightly Chevrolet's Full Coil suspension handles rough going — and coil springs never squeak, never need grease! Try this velvet way of going for yourself. Once you do, you'll find your own way of saying what MOTOR TREND magazine puts this way: " . . . the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." But the happiest part of it all is that this Full Coil ride is just one of seven big bests — all documented by published opinions of experts and on-the-record facts and figures.

BEST ROOM—Official dimensions reported to A.M.A.* show that Chevrolet sedans offer more front seat head room than all but one of the high-priced cars — more front seat hip room (by up to 5.9 inches) than the "other two" of the leading low-priced three.

BEST ENGINE—Chevrolet engines have long won expert praise from virtually every automobile magazine, and, just recently, Chevrolet received the NASCAR† Outstanding Achievement award for "the creation and continuing development of America's most efficient V-type engines."

BEST ECONOMY—A pair of Chevrolet slices with Powerglide won their class in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run, topping every other full-sized car. And the winning mileage was a whopping 22.38 m.p.g.

BEST BRAKES—Chevy's bonded-lining brakes are the biggest in their field, built for up to 66% longer life. In a direct competition conducted by NASCAR, Chevy out-stopped both of the other leading low-priced cars in a test of repeated stops from highway speeds.

BEST STYLE—It's the only car of the leading low-priced 3 that's unmistakably modern in every line. "In its price class," says POPULAR SCIENCE magazine, "a new high in daring styling."

BEST TRADE-IN—Any N.A.D.A.† Guide Book can give you the figures on Chevy's extra value. You'll find that Chevrolet used car prices last year averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of the "other two." Your Chevrolet dealer will be happy to tell you about a whole host of other advantages besides these seven. Why not drop by his showroom?

WEDDING VOWS WERE REPEATED this month by Jeanette Ann Gibson, daughter of Mrs. Powers Gibson of La Puente and Robert Gibson of Palm Springs, and Donald F. Gullett of Phoenix in West Covina. The former Miss Gibson has spent much time in the Palm Springs area, and two years ago was Queen of the Palm Springs Mounted Police Rodeo. The couple will honeymoon in Canada and plan to make their home in Phoenix.

Children 'Ruling Adults' Claim of N.Y. Psychiatrist

NEW YORK, N.Y. (UPI)—A prominent New York psychiatrist declares that our society has allowed itself to be dominated by its children to a dangerous degree.

In a report on the "new thinking" about juvenile delinquency, The Reporter magazine today quoted Dr. Melitta Schmideberg, director of the Association for the Psychiatric Treatment of Offenders, who said, "While the demands on the parent and teacher — to be fair, consistent, patient, and tolerant — have been increasing, the demands on the child have been lowered to such a degree he grows up without adequate conscience, self-control, or will power. He is excessively self-centered, and takes quite responsible restraint or repression as an affront."

In a copyrighted Reporter article, "What Can We Do About 'J.D.'?" Virginia P. Held writes on several theories about juvenile delinquency.

The most popular theory today about juvenile delinquency seems to be that it is caused by psychiatric disturbances, Mrs. Held reports. However, she notes that Dr. Schmideberg believes that the attempt to provide humane treatment and psychiatric therapy for delinquents has sometimes had the unfortunate side effect of leading them to take their offenses lightly.

Dr. Schmideberg commented that the youngsters she sees almost never feel a sense of guilt about their wrongdoing. She believes that many young offenders have simply never acquired a sense of wrongness of cruelty and brutality.

Dr. Schmideberg emphasizes that each society must expect the crimes that are tolerated or something even encouraged by popular attitudes. In the last year for which the figures are available, there were 133 arrests for murder and nonaccidental killing of children under 13 years old in the notes that comparable figures for European countries are considerably lower, and in some civilizations, homicide committed by children is practically unheard of.

Perhaps, she suggests, U. S. delinquency rates are increasing because our society does not sufficiently disapprove of the many acts of violence, brutality, theft, and destruction in which its youth indulges.

Mrs. Held reports that punishment has become highly unpopular during the last few generations, but Dr. Schmideberg thinks that since children are not born with an innate appreciation of good conduct they must acquire it through learning. She approves, as an aid in teaching this, "justified and moderate punishment — including spanking by both parents and teachers."

Mrs. Held notes the irony in the fact that children are quick to learn what anyone takes the trouble to teach them. "Over and over in talking with people who work with delinquents, I have been told that all children today are extremely conscious of their rights; they know all about them and they assert and insist on them," Mrs. Held writes.

L.A. in 13-Inning Win Over Braves

Dodgers Close in On Giants
As Newcombe Beats S.F., 7-0

United Press International

Although they now wear "San Francisco" across the front of their uniforms, the Giants are still the blankety-blank Giants to big Don Newcombe.

And because of this hatred for Bill Rigney's crew, which goes back to his glory days in Brooklyn, the big Cincinnati right-hander indirectly is helping his old Dodger teammates in their bid to catch the Giants in the current National League pennant chase.

NEWCOMBE, BACKED up by a 15-hit Cincinnati attack, turned in a 7-0 shutout victory over San Francisco Tuesday night while the Dodgers pulled to within two games of the pace-setters by outlasting the Milwaukee Braves, 7-6, in a 13-inning, 4½-hour marathon.

The Dodgers scored their winning run against the Braves on a triple by Wally Moon and Rip Repulski's single off ace Warren Spahn, the seventh Milwaukee pitcher. Spahn, who entered the game in the 11th inning, now has an 0-5 record against Los Angeles this season.

IN THE ONLY other NL action, the Philadelphia Phillies downed the St. Louis Cardinals, 2-1, on a run-scoring single by Richie Ashburn in the seventh inning. It was Ashburn's first RBI since July 30.

The Chicago White Sox opened a 4½ game lead over Cleveland in the American League race by edging the Baltimore Orioles, 6-4, while the Washington Senators handed the Indians their fourth straight defeat, 11-4. The New York Yankees turned back the Detroit Tigers, 5-3, and the Boston Red Sox nipped the Kansas City Athletics, 5-4.

Freeman Tosses No-Hitter, Seattle Beats Mounties

United Press International
The Seattle Rainiers continue to be the hottest thing in the Pacific Coast League and it's having a strange effect upon the Rainier players.

For example, Mark Freeman, a giant of a pitcher with an almost equally large earned run average (.38), fired a no-run, no hit Tuesday night as the Rainiers defeated Vancouver, 3-0. It was Seattle's 13th victory in its last 14 games.

THE SUDS ARE now only four and a half games behind league-leading Portland, but because of the tightness of the PCL race, they're still in seventh place.

Phoenix, the coldest team in the league, lost its 12th straight decision by failing to San Diego, 6-3.

FREEMAN, A 6-6 righthander, struck out 12 batters in his surprisingly good show. He is now 9-8 on the season. Freeman walked two in the second inning and that constituted the only Mountie threat. The only other Vancouver base runner was Jim Finigar, who was safe on an error in the sixth.

GIANTS TO QUIT PHOENIX, SHIFT TEAM TO TACOMA

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI)—Phoenix considered ideal for the training purposes of the San Francisco Giants, proved, literally, "too hot" for the Pacific Coast League today prompting a retreat to the cooler climate of Tacoma, Wash. General Manager Rosy Ryan of the PCL Giants, principal farm club of San Francisco, announced the team's franchise would be shifted to Tacoma next year because of poor attendance here.

Ryan expressed regret at leaving Phoenix. "We like it here and like the people," he said. "It's just a question of business," he explained. "We can't afford to lose $140,000 to $150,000 a year."

Continental Loop Seeking Three More Franchises

NEW YORK — (UPI) — The newly-formed Continental League, bursting with increased confidence as a result of President Branch Rickey's first meeting with baseball's top brass, turned today to its next big job, the selection of three more cities to complete the eight-team loop.

"All eight clubs will have a team on the field in 1961 without any question," said the 77-year-old Rickey, who was named Tuesday as first president of the proposed third major league.

THE BEETLE - BROWED, cigar-smoking Rickey declared that his confidence in the new league's future was boosted by his meeting with Commissioner Ford Frick and other top officials of organized baseball Tuesday because "all my anticipations were fully realized as to their cooperation."

William A. Shea, the dynamic New York attorney who sparked the new league as chairman of the founders' group, pin-pointed Rickey's first major task as league head when he disclosed that picking three more franchise cities is "our very next project."

FIVE CITIES already are in the Continental loop as "founding cities" — New York, Denver, Houston, Toronto, and Minneapolis-St. Paul.

The three additions, which will be picked "on the basis of applications and further analysis" according to Shea, are expected to come from among Buffalo, N. Y., Atlanta, Miami, Fla., Seattle, San Diego, Montreal, Dallas - Fort Worth, and San Juan, P.R.

MEXICAN COLONY BEATS PSBS, 15-1

Mexican Colony Club last night won the somewhat unenviable right to meet Biltmore Hotel for the Desert Softball League playoff title with a resounding 15-1 victory over the Palm Springs Builders Supply.

The title game will be played at 8 p.m., tomorrow, in the Polo Grounds here.

FRANK PRIETO threw a tight 3-hit ball game at the Builders last night and struck out six in doing it.

His teammates struck for six runs in the third inning, six more in the fifth and had minor uprisings in two other frames. It was Prieto himself who led the batting surge, netting three hits — a double and two singles — in five trips to the plate.

THE COLONY CLUB holds the distinction of being the only team to have beaten the Biltmore in league play this season. They did the job in the first round of the

Pros Cautious About McCovey

By OSCAR FRALEY
NEW YORK — (UPI) — Fearless Fraley's facts and figures: Baseball men are cautious about jumping on the Willie McCovey bandwagon despite the phenomenal start of the San Francisco Giants first baseman whose bat has blasted the junks out of the doldrums since he was called up from Phoenix.

"WAIT 'TILL THE second time around," they say. "Remember Hurricane Hazie? Well, two years ago he performed the same wonders when he got a shot with the Braves. The next season he couldn't hit the floor with his bat and drifted back to the minors."

The Giants' second "Wondrous Willie" isn't perturbed, however. He reveals "they have been pitching me all over trying to find weaknesses." ... hinting that he personally doesn't feel he has any.

THE PRO GOLFERS can't wait to play in the new all-star golf series which opens Oct. 10 with joyful Jimmy Demaret as the commentator. It isn't only that they get paid for appearing with extras for sub par rounds, eagles, holes-in-one, etc. They also collect on residuals.

As example, Sammy Snead won $23,000 on his skein of 13 victories last year—and just has picked up a juicy slice of the $30,000 extra being paid to golfers in connection with television reruns. "y'better get little Donald Digging divots, Daddy ...

Dempsey Gets Promoter Tag For Ingo Bout

Villager Discusses Flight to Sweden For Johansson Talk

NEW YORK — (UPI) — Jack Dempsey may fly to Sweden Friday to clarify the Ingemar Johansson - Floyd Patterson return-fight muddle.

Dempsey, brand new promotional director of the hoped-for Sept. 22 bout, said today, "I'll be ready to go Friday to Sweden — or anywhere else — if Ingemar wants to sit down and straighten things out."

WHEN THE 64-year-old "Manassa Mauler" flies to Europe he will be accompanied by Vincent J. Velella and Irving B. Kahn, president and board-chairman, respectively, of the reorganized Rosenzohn Enterprises, Inc.

Big-fisted Jack, former heavyweight champion, was named promotional director and advisor of the Rosenzohn organization Tuesday at a press conference in Dempsey's Broadway restaurant.

"I TOOK THIS job without a salary, but on a $500-a-week expense account," millionaire Jack explained, "in order to help the fight—and boxing in general. The sport needs this match. It's too good to be kicked around any longer. It should draw a million-dollar gate, wherever held."

Some reporters were very surprised that Dempsey should ally himself with Rosenzohn Enterprises because of the outfit's unsavory publicity since the June 23 fight in which Johansson of Sweden took the crown from Patterson on a third-round knockout.

RIGHT NOW Rosenzohn Enterprises is the hub of three official investigations, and a major target of magazine articles by Johansson an ex-promoter Bill Rosenzohn, who formed the corporation.

Dempsey explained, "Naturally I was a bit hesitant about joining the outfit when I was asked to help. But I had my attorneys — one of the best firms in New York—examine the situation thoroughly, and they recommended the reorganized setup as completely sound—financially and legally."

FRIENDS SAY that Jack's real reason for jumping into the mess is his long-time crusade against monopoly in boxing and his desire to see champions fighting for independent promoters.

It may require a big "selling" job by Dempsey to keep Johansson allied with Rosenzohn Enterprises despite its reorganization. A signed article by Johansson in the latest issue of Life Magazine said there probably would be no September defense against Patterson because, "I can't fight Patterson and the fight mob, too."

Red Suits Up... But Allows He 'Might Not Play'

By FRED LINDECKE

United Press International
MILWAUKEE — (UPI) — Second baseman Red Schoendienst is back in a Milwaukee Braves uniform and taking batting practice with the club.

But he admits he is aiming for the lineup "next spring" instead of this fall.

THE REDHEAD took his first workout with the club Monday night since he was sidelined with tuberculosis last fall.

Schoendienst said his doctor is opposed to his playing this year but has assured him he "can do everything" next spring that "I've ever done before."

"Yes, next year," the star second baseman said, although he admitted he didn't know if he might pop up in the lineup as the season closes out late in September.

"WELL, IT COULD be," he said when asked if, say Sept. 27, closing day, he might pinch hit. Although this would require the Braves to take him off special disabled status, Schoendienst said he expected to tag along with the club the rest of the year, possibly leaving him able to step in before the season ends.

Manager Fred Haney said he has no idea when Schoendienst will return to the roster. "It's up to the doctor. When the doctor says he's ready, then he'll come back." Asked about the possibility of Schoendienst seeing

"When the doctor says he's ready, he'll come back," Red is under strict orders not to tire himself.

Moore Defends Feather Crown Against Bassey

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — Davey Moore, holder of the world featherweight boxing crown for only four months, gives Hogan (K-I-D) Bassey a chance to regain the title tonight in a scheduled 15-rounder at Olympic Auditorium.

The 25-year-old titleholder, known as the Springfield rifle because of his hometown in Ohio and his sharp punching, stopped Bassey in 13 rounds here at the Olympic last March 18 to take the crown which the African had held since June of 1957. Bassey, pride of the British Empire's Nigeria, became champion when he beat Cherif Hamla of France in an elimination contest.

Tonight's return match will be televised nationally beginning at 10 p.m. e.d.t. with Southern California blacked out.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING
Amendment to City Zoning Law,
Division 5, Palm Springs Ordinance
Code
NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Planning Commission of the City of Palm Springs, California, will hold a public hearing on Wednesday, September 2, 1959, at 3:00 P.M., in the City Council Chambers, 3200 McCallum
Way, in the City of Palm Springs,
County of Riverside, State of California.
The purpose of this hearing is to consider the application of Benjamin Dickstein for a change of zone classification from an R-1 Zone District to an R-3 Zone District for that property described as the western 130 ft. of Lot 24, Section 26, T4S, R4E, S.B.M., as shown on the records of the Bureau of Indian Affairs, and generally located on the east side of South Palm Canyon Drive between El Camino Way and Crestview Drive. Change of zone will require an amendment of Division 5 of the Palm Springs Ordinance Code.
Notice of this hearing is being sent to all property owners within 400 feet of subject property, and an opportunity will be given at said hearing for all interested persons and the general public to be heard.
CITY PLANNING COMMISSION
KERRAN RANER,
Planning Director
Published August 19, 1959.

NOTICE
JAN MICHEL, Plaintiff, vs. DOROTHY
K. BLAIR and JACK BLAIR, Defendants.

SUPERIOR COURT
No. 80703
SHERIFF'S SALE ON EXECUTION
Order and by Virtue of a Writ of Execution, issued out of the Superior Court of the County of Los Angeles, State of California, dated the 24th day of June,
A. D. 1959, in the above entitled action
(and directed to the Sheriff of the County of Riverside, State of California) wherein JAN MICHEL, the above named plaintiff, obtained a judgment in the Superior Court of the County of Los Angeles, State of California, against DOROTHY K. BLAIR and JACK K. BLAIR, the above named defendants, for the sum of Five Thousand Two Hundred
Sixty Three and 1/2 dollars, and costs,
I have this day attached and levied upon all the right, title and interest and estate of the above named defendants DOROTHY K. BLAIR and JACK K. BLAIR, in and to the following described real property, to-wit:
being and being in the County of Riverside, State of California, and more particularly described as follows: To-wit:
Lot 41 of Shadow Mountain Park
Estate Unit No. 1, as shown by Map on file in Book 25, Pages 18 and 19 of Maps, Records of Riverside County, California.
Public Notice is hereby given, That I will, on Monday the 31st day of August, A. D. 1959, at 11:00 o'clock A. M., of that day, in front of the Sheriff's office on Orange Street in the City of Riverside, sell at public auction, for lawful money of the United States, all the right, title claim and interest of said
defendants DOROTHY K. BLAIR and JACK K. BLAIR, in and to the above described property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to raise sufficient to satisfy said judgment, with interest and costs, etc., to the highest and best bidder.
Dated this 29th day of June, 1959.
JOE W. RICH, Sheriff of Riverside County.
By RICHARD W. FOWLER,
Deputy Sheriff.
Published August 5, 12, 19 and 26,

DESERT HOT SPRINGS

By ELLEN SAUNDERS

Week-end guests at the home of Joe Dabbs, owner of Dogtown, U.S.A., included Dabbs' brother and sister-in-law, the Peter Dabbs and their two children, Jennifer and David. The Dabbs who now reside in Studio City planned in three weeks ago from Sheffield, England, and hope to become American citizens.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Winnick who maintain homes both here and in Hollywood, were in town for the weekend. Their house guests, the Joseph Brans of Hollywood, were enjoying their first visit here.

Mrs. Lloyd Brison began a 10-day vacation at Glenn Ranch in Lytle Creek Canyon on Monday. Frances McDonnell will be in charge of the town library during Mrs. Brison's absence.

Among the guests at the Little Admiral Inn are the Nicholas Wagners of Newport Beach. The Wagners who are spending the entire summer here find the climate very beneficial.

Dr. Robert Bingham, Medical Director of the Angel View Crippled Children's Foundation, has just announced that Dr. Lois Lobb has joined the growing list of specialists who volunteer their services as consultants at the Children's Clinic. Dr. Lobb, a psychiatrist on the staff of the Patton State Hospital, is a part-time resident of this community and owner of the Aqua-Spa.

Mrs. Edith Smith of Coronado who has been the houseguest of the John Youngs for several days, motored to her home on Tuesday. Mrs. Young made the return trip with her guest, but expects to be back in town very shortly since she leaves August 25 on a business trip of several weeks duration which will take her to New York City and North Carolina.

Phil Baker, Hollywood script writer was seen lunching at Estelle's Brush-Bunny on Saturday. Baker returned to Hollywood on Sunday after a week's relaxation here. Mrs. Clarence M. Bartusch who recently underwent minor emergency surgery at St. Joseph's Hospital in Burbank, returned to her home on Saturday in time to enjoy her husband's birthday celebration. Among the guests were Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Linov of Glendale, who are spending a week at the Bartusch residence.

The Martin Grans (he owns the Richfield station) have just returned from a five-day jaunt which took them and their four children to Ocean Park, Long Beach, Disneyland and other coastal cities.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Halloway left on Saturday for a weeks vacation at Manhattan Beach.

San Francisco, Orville, and Lake Tahoe were just a few of the scenic spots enjoyed by the Jake Smiths and their son Jimmy during their recent two-week vacation. In addition they visited friends in Santa Ana and the coastal cities.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Meeks (owners of the Desert Hot Springs Builders Supply Co.) returned on Friday from a week's visit at Clear Lake, with their daughter and son-in-law, the R. E. Healds who are working at the resort. This was the second trip this summer for the Meeks who only recently were vacationing in Cortez, Colo. with Mrs. Meek's brother, R. E. Harrison. During the couple's absence, their son, Larry who has been on a month's furlough from Fairchild's Air Force Base in Seattle, managed the store.

Among the weekend guests at the Broadview Lodge was Anthony Toarmina, a partner in Anthony's House of Beauty in Inglewood. This was Toarmina's first visit here but he's planning an early return.

Mrs. Vi Dinsmore—owner-operator of Blue Heaven Ranch—has been in and out of town

ICBM Cities Top Targets For Soviets

Mayors of Missile Site Communities 'Not Exactly Elated'

VANDENBERG AFB — (UPI) — A handful of communities across the nation soon will become primary targets for Russian intercontinental ballistic missiles.

They will achieve that status when America's Atlas ICBM goes on operational duty at a half-dozen Strategic Air Command (SAC) bases in the U.S.

HOW DOES IT FEEL to be a citizen of target-town, U.S.A.?

Mayor Worth Story of Cheyenne, Wyo., the community set to become the first such town late this year, put it simply after witnessing his first missile launching here Thursday.

"The Air Force knows what it's doing,"

Story headed a group of Cheyenne's leading citizens on a visit here to see the Discoverer V satellite firing. Warren Air Force Base, near Cheyenne, will be the country's first base capable of sending atomic destruction into Russia.

MAYORS OF communities surrounding Vandenberg—to be both an operational and training base—including Curt Tunnell of Santa Maria, Harold Thompson of Lompoc and Charles Draper of Guadalupe, were in agreement with Story.

"We don't feel exactly elated that we're a primary target," Tunnell said. "But we feel we can do our little share in defense of the country—after all, the whole country is one big target."

all summer, is home for a few weeks, and has as her house guest, Mr. Walker Kendall of Pine Meadows ranch. Part of Mrs. Dinsmore's vacation was spent with her sister, Mrs. Lola Stevenson of Fresno. Then she joined her daughter and son-in-law, the Jack Donahue's of Hollywood—he's National Sales Manager for Channel 5, KTTV—at Bass Lake, where the Donahue's and their children, Robert and Nancy got in some good fishing. Mrs. Dinsmore reported that Nud and Ann Krotter, well-known Desert Hot Springs residents, were employed at Duc's Lodge in Bass Lake but expect to winter on the desert. On her way home Mrs. Dinsmore spent several days with Mrs. Allen Guthrie of Beaumont.

Nate and Rose Bertram are back in town after visiting 11 countries during a two-month European tour. Highlights included attendance at a Fourth of July party given by the American Embassy in Paris, several days spent at Caste Fuschl near Vienna (this is the castle where Hitler and Mussolini met to plot Russia's downfall) and a visit with their old friend, Count Cantuti, Captain of the Guards at the Vatican. While in Italy, the Bertrams toured many spas searching for new ideas which they might incorporate in the motel they will build here during the coming season.

Part-Time Villager Says:

Artists Also Break 'Barriers'

Part-time Villager Irving Stone, author of the best-selling "Lust for Life," feels that artists like scientists, are continually striving to "break through" limiting barriers.

The artist, Stone testifies, generally attempts to break through existing barriers of knowledge and understanding to travel beyond that which is seen by the eye alone.

"THE ARTIST tries to see a little more than is available to the naked eye and to give us something more than we know ourselves," Stone said.

Stone, famed as a biographer-novelist, expressed his views at a Lake Arrowhead conference entitled "Genius in Arts and Music."

He is probably best known for his volume "Lust for Life," which chronicles the life of the French artist Van Gogh.

IRVING STONE

STONE ASSERTED that artists strive to override existing barriers of knowledge and understanding in an attempt to portray the human spirit and the question of why we are on earth and how to make it intelligent and wondrous.

"When the artist successfully communicates these things, we can never look at the sea, the trees, or whatever his subject be, in quite the same way as before," Stone explained.

BUT SOME ARTISTS substitute invention for communication.

"The trouble with abstract painter is that they communicate only with themselves," Stone explained, confessing that he doesn't fully understand them.

"But a true artist wants to communicate because he feels he has something to convey to enrich the minds of others."

Stone is currently at work on a biographical novel of the life of Michelangelo.

Fair Seating Pact to Cal Construction

Supervisors Keep Next Two Bids as 'Precaution' Check

The $282,000 bid of Cal Construction Company of San Bernardino for construction of a new horticulture building and remodeling of the Arabian Pageant seating area at the fairgrounds in Indio was accepted by the Board of Supervisors this week.

As a matter of precaution bid security and bids of the next two low bidders were held pending receipt of the company's signed acceptance.

REASON FOR THE uncertainty is Cal Construction Company's claim that it made a $13,000 error and that the bid should be considered as $295,000 instead of $282,000. "It is our feeling," declared Charles J. Lagreco, "that although not technically or properly presented, to the board of Supervisors in good faith and that if our proposal is to be accepted as 'responsive,' it was truly in the amount of $295,000 and not $282,000 as actually recorded."

The two next lowest basic bids were those of $305,615 by Meredith & Simpson of Thermal, and $313,977 by Forsberg and Gregory of Redlands.

COUNTY COUNSEL Ray T. Sullivan, Jr., reviewing for the supervisors what had transpired in regard to the San Bernardino firm's bid said they had not at any time requested that their bid be withdrawn.

'PIONEERS' WIND UP ON-TO OREGON TOUR AT CENTENNIAL FETE

INDEPENDENCE, Ore. (UPI) — The modern pioneers of the Oregon Centennial Cavalcade have made their triumphal entry into Independence, Ore., completing their covered wagon trek from Independence, Mo.

Some 25,000 onlookers cheered as the wagoners of the On-to-Oregon Centennial Cavalcade were honored in a parade through the downtown streets of this city by the Willamette river.

After the parade, the wagons rolled to a stockade that had been built especially for them at the Henry Hill school grounds. There the mules and the horses were given a much deserved rest, while the 39ers got ready for more trail - ending festivities today and tonight.
